DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claim 1, 2, 4-7, 10 and 12 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The specific limitation of "wherein said at least one first cabinet has associated therewith a sensor able to detect leakage of gas and to generate a signal related to a condition of the atmosphere therein, the sensor being operatively associated with a second extractor fan communicating with the interior of the cabinet so as to increase the rate at which air is extracted therefrom, and said vaporizer is located in said at least one first cabinet." in the combination as claimed in claim 1 is not anticipated or made obvious by the prior art of record in the examiners opinion.

For example, McGarvey (US Patent 5,284,191) with reference to Figure 26 discloses an installation comprising a vault (600) housing a liquefied gas storage tank (611), a chamber within the vault (626), a liquefied gas inlet (642) and a liquefied gas supply pipeline (670b).

Chan (US Patent 7,011,118) discloses a cabinet housing various fuel dispensing components and having a fan to exhaust air from the cabinet (Figure 7).

Matsumura (US Patent 5,678,411) in Figure 1 discloses a liquefied gas supply system having a vaporizer (4).

Art Unit: 3751

However, the prior art of record does not teach or suggest the specific limitation of "wherein said at least one first cabinet has associated therewith a sensor able to detect leakage of gas and to generate a signal related to a condition of the atmosphere therein, the sensor being operatively associated with a second extractor fan communicating with the interior of the cabinet so as to increase the rate at which air is extracted therefrom, and said vaporizer is located in said at least one first cabinet." in the combination as claimed in claim 1.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
